Four Salt Lakers Will Go to Peru With A. W. MCune.

A. W. McCune has engaged the services of four Salt Lake men and five Butte miners to assist him in his big mining enterprise in Peru. The Salt Lake men are John Q. Critchlow, Charles Sloan, Matthew McCune and John Chisholm. The Butte men are five miners and F. W. Blackfoot. The latter is a mining engineer who will assist Manager McFarland in the development of the new imne. Mr. Sloan, who is going to take his wife along will also be an assistant to Mr. MacFarland. Matthew McCune will have charge of the freighting, and Mr. Chis-holm will be the head of all the carpenter work. He built the Horseshoe mill at Fay, Nev., for Mr. McCune. The position Mr. Critchlow will hold will be that of head bookkeeper.

The party with the exception of Mr. Blackford and Mr. Chisholm, will sall from San Francisco Nov. 5. The other two will go east in a day or two with Mr. McCune. Mr. Chisholm taking his family to Maine, to let them remain there while he is absent.

Mr. McCune will confer with his as-ociates in New York, and then sail for Peru to be gone about six months.

It is probable that the company will have to build a railroad to the mine covering about eighty miles.

DESERETEVENINGNEWS RAILROAD YARDS ON JORDAN BANKS

Agricultural Park | May Be Purchased by One of New Roads.

SPLENDID SITE FOR TRACKS

Negotiations Said to Re Contemplated For Sale of This Piece of Property for Railroad Purposes.

It is said that negotiations are to be shortly opened for the purchase of Agricultural Park from the Deseret Agricultural & Manufacturing association for the purpose of transforming that piece of property into railroad yards in addition to other land which will be secured north of the big hold-

Just who is at the back of the scheme is not at this time apparent, while the directors of the D. A. M. society also profess to know nothing regarding the matter at this time. The land is for sale, and now it has been practically decided that the property will not be utilized for the state fairs in the future the directors will be only too glad to part with the property, especially if it means that another railroad is to make means that another railroad is to make its headquarters in Salt Lake.

It is practically decided, according to those who are in touch with the situation, that the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific are to meet in Salt Lake and it is not unlikely that the property may be utilized by the Southern Pacific and Southern Pacific and Southern Pacific may be utilized by the Southern Pa-cific as freight and transfer yards. According to the surveys that have been made both the San Pedro and the Southern Pacific will cross the Jordan river within 300 feet of Agricultural Park and a glance at the map of the city shows that the spot would be an deal one for railroad yards.

HAWAH TO PANAMA.

Important Traffic Arrangements Said To Be Pending With Panama R.R.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct, 25 .- The Chronicle says that one of the principal officers of the American-Hawaiian steamship company is authority for the statement that an important traffic ar-rangement with the Panama railread company is under consideration. Since the inauguration of the line a year ago the American-Hawaiian company's steamers on the route connecting this port with New York and Honolulu have been running through the straits of Magellan, calling at no intermediate ports of the line except to coal.

Under the arrangements said to be under negotiation the six large steamers of the American-Hawaiian line will soon be plying no further south than Panama, three running between this port, Honolulu and Panama, the others between the Isthmus and New York, with the Panama railroad company doing all the overland business brought to its eighty-mile road by the great ocean This will include the handcarriers. This will include the hand-ling of the Hawaiian sugar, for the transportation of which the American-Hawaiian company has valuable on-

ORIENTAL TRAFFIC. Portland Port Unable to Handle

Tremendous Business Offered. In reference to the huge oriental traffic which is being built up by the Harriman lines the following dispatent from Portland makes interesting read-

The Norwegian steamship Thyra, th third steamer to leave Portland for the Orient this month, cleared yesterday afternoon with 26,308 barreis of flour, 278,708 feet of lumber and a small consignment of hops. This was only about half a cargo for the big steamer, but was all the space that could be secured, as she goes from here to San Francisco. where some freight engagements had been made before her Portland freight Despite the relief thus afforded by three extra stemers and by the 8,000 ton cargo which the Indrovelli will take out of Portland next week, nearly as much freight has been diverted to other ports as will be taken out by all four of these steamers which will clear direct from Portland. The regular line has been in operation between Portland and the Orient less than six months. and while Portland's Oriental trade has been nearly all driven to other ports before it was started it has come back to this city in such a value. back to this city in such a volume that the present service is wretchedly in-adequate for handling it.

adequate for handling it.

Consignments of dried fruit, apples, flour and crackers went out of Portland yesterday by rail for Puget Sound, where they will be loaded on the steamers operated by the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Canadian Pacific. A number of large consignments of flour have already gone forward for reshipment on the Puget sound: camers, some of the heaviest shippers who keep in closest touch with the moveers operated by the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Canadian Pacific.

SKILLED WITH THE ARROW.

South Portsmouth had a dist guished visitor in the person of a halfbreed Indian, on his way from Oklahoma, to Richmond, Va., where he had relatives. He is familiarly known as "Indian Jim," and is a quaint character. He claims to own a large ranch in Oklahoma and says that he is in the government service. He is badly dis-figured, the result of frequent person-al encounters. His forehead bore a steel plate, where he had received a bullet wound. His arms and hands also showed the marks of bullet wounds. He was shot in the back several times, and dog skin was grafted on him to heal the wounds. Portions of his hide still contain canine skin the hair being plainly visible, showing it to have come from a dog Jim entertained quite a crowd in the shade beneath Branch's coal tipple. Mrs. C. E. DeForrest Still Confined To Quarters at Hospital.

FAMILY HONORS ONE BILL.

Refuses to Honor Others, Although DeForrest Was Entitled to a Legucy of $100,000.

On September 30 last C. E. DeForrest a civil engineer of Denver, died at a hospital in this city. At that time it was learned that had the deceased lived until next Tuesday he would have come into possession of a legacy of $100,000, but which, under existing circumstances, reverted to the other surviving heirs. This provision left Mrs. DeForrest penniless and upon the day of her husband's death the lady fell ill and has since been confined to her quarters at the hospital. Undertaker O'Donnell took charge of the body, which he embalmed and which is still in his possession at his establishment on West Temple street. DeForrest's family, living in New York and vicinity, has consented to pay the bill of $250, thus contracted, but through an attorney absolutely refuses to counterpasses with the street of the attorney absolutely refuses to countenance billis for any other expenditures, returning unpaid a bill of $11.35 rendered by the hospital. Mrs. DeForrest expects to be able to leave the hospital in a day or two, when she will sorrowingly begin a sad effort to remove her deceased husband's remains to Denver. In view of the fact that so much wealth so narrowly escaped possession of the unfortunate family, the present distress of Mrs. DeForrest leads to some uncompilmentary discussion of the eastcomplimentary discussion of the east-ern portion of the family by persons here who are acquainted with the lady's plight.

Had the husband lived sufficiently long to have come into possession of his legacy the wife's present pitlable ex-tremity would have been averted.
